EQUALITY DUTY – COMPLIANCE WITH SINGLE EQUALITY DUTY (SED)

“Everyone is an insider, there are no outsiders – whatever their beliefs, whatever their colour, gender or sexuality” Archbishop Desmond Tutu February 2004

At Gilmorton Chandler Church of England Primary School we believe that all should feel welcomed, valued and nurtured as part of our community. This inclusion is essential preparation for our children so they can make a positive contribution to life in the multi-cultural, multi-faceted world in which we live. Hospitality, inclusion and reverence for all are part of the core values which underpin all our work and practice and are central to our Christian ethos.

Gilmorton Chandler aims to provide an environment where all feel valued and free from discrimination, reflecting the world in all its rich diversity. We are committed to promoting the understanding of the principles and practices of equality - treating all those associated with our school as individuals, according to their needs, with an awareness of our diverse society and appreciating the value of difference. We actively promote an anti-bullying stance which includes making explicit the unacceptability of racist, disablist and homophobic remarks. In fact we actively seek to combat all forms of negative discrimination.

Within the umbrella of inclusion we understand that, as individuals, children and adults alike all require some form of support. We recognise for some this may be specific and sometimes require the help of professionals and outside agencies. The school has worked hard to be as accessible as possible. However, should any individual encounter any difficulties with our provision we would actively seek to support them.

At Gilmorton Chandler we provide a broad and balanced curriculum that is accessible to all children, recognising individual needs and working in close partnership with parents, carers and other professionals. We plan our curriculum to extend our children’s knowledge and experience of Christianity as a global faith and of and other religions, cultures, languages and celebrations. We ensure that our curriculum echoes the diversity of our society. Our curriculum planning, the resources we select and the behaviour we expect reflect the commitment from staff, parents/carers and volunteers to actively include all our children.

Educational inclusion is about equal opportunities, for all children, whatever their age, gender, ethnicity, attainment and background. It ensures particular attention to the provision made for the achievement of different groups of pupils within a school. We are aware that specific groups of children are more likely to under-achieve and/or suffer discriminatory practice than others within our society.

These groups include:

- girls and boys; transgender children;
- minority ethnic and faith groups, travellers, asylum seekers and refugees;
- pupils where family members are in prison;
- pupils who need support to learn English as an additional language (EAL);
- pupils with disabilities;
- pupils with special educational needs;
- gifted and talented pupils;
- children ‘looked after’ by the local authority;
- other groups of children (such as sick children, young carers and children under stress, children from single parent families, children with parents/carers with drug or alcohol dependency issues, children with same sex parents/carers);
- any pupils who are at risk of disaffection and exclusion.

At Gilmorton Chandler we are committed to constantly monitoring, evaluating and reviewing our practice to ensure that the entire school community and, in particular, all our pupils:

- make good progress and achieve
- are able to learn effectively without interference and disruption
- are treated respectfully
- receive additional help according to their needs
- have access to a broad and balanced curriculum
- feel safe, secure and happy within the school setting

We take seriously our legal duties regarding discrimination. When drawing up this policy we felt that, whilst this is a stand-alone document, equality permeates all aspects of school life and this document should therefore be read in conjunction with other policies – see schedule below.

1. How we eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act:

As a matter of course, Gilmorton Chandler staff is reminded about the compliance and importance of the Single Equality Duty and ensure that all work undertaken complies and promotes equality of access and participation for all. Our policies and procedures demonstrate compliance with the Duty.

2. Advancing equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it:

Our policies and procedures articulate how we remove or minimise disadvantages that could be suffered by particular groups (for example, our Anti-Bullying Policy outlines measures to approach homophobic bullying and our Charging and Remissions Policy outlines how financially-disadvantaged families can be assisted with payments etc).

Any discrepancies are highlighted and appropriate measures are put into place to minimise and/or improve the academic achievement of any 'group' (for example, one-to-one or small group tuition is currently being provided to specific FSM and LAC children to assist in narrowing the gap).

3. Fostering good relations across all characteristics - between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it:

As highlighted in the schedules above, and particularly within curriculum policies, our thorough work in promoting tolerance, respect and understanding of those people with disabilities, those with differing cultures etc. is effective in fostering good relationships. Our work with neighbouring schools, multi-faith approaches, PSHE work and links with schools from other cultures and countries provides the pupils with experiences to help them develop these relationships.
